

How do employees feel about recognition in the workplace since COVID began?

59% feel less appreciated and connected to their team working remotely.

20% feel burnt out.

82%

report receiving the same, if not less, recognition since COVID.

Employees crave acknowledgment, but only 13% feel recognized by their executive team.

21% find recognition from coworkers and managers equal or more important than salary.

Gift cards and monetary bonuses were the top 2 types of recognition employees prefer to receive, but of employee respondents said their workplace doesn't offer a monetary or gift card recognition program at their job.

Almost 45% of employees are looking for or at least considering getting a new job.

cited not feeling appreciated as a reason to look for a new job.

In the new market where 23% said company culture is as important (or more) than salary, recognition is a vital part of having that positive workplace environment. With us, it's an easy fix!

Employee recognition, loyalty, and rewards programs can increase job satisfaction in your workplace. With InComm InCentives, we'll build the perfect solution to help cultivate more appreciation and recognition in your workplace to lower burnout and turnover rates.

We make recognition easy. Let's get started today!

Visit solutions.incommincents.com/employee-rewards/ to learn more.